

GONE BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN

When I am gone release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourselves to me with tears,
Just be happy that we had some years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
how much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time, I traveled on alone.
Do grieve a while for me if you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So, keep our memories within your hearts.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So, if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear,
All my love around so soft and dear.
And then when you must come this way alone.
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"WELCOME HOME".

Thank you

*The family of the late Garth Magloire wishes to express our sincere gratitude to the many friends and well-wishers.
We truly appreciate the prayers, visits, telephone calls received and your kindness during our time of bereavement. We thank you all from the bottom of our hearts for your unwavering support and love.*

 Garth was very friendly, funny, extremely sociable and endearing, with a larger than life personality. He loved people. He loved life. Many loved him as well. His Legacy is amplified and underlined throughout a positive life history of his humor, love and caring.

He leaves behind many friends and relatives all over the world who are collectively mourning his loss. He was indeed a very special friend and "ICON" (as described by some).

He was very well known in Toronto and was also considered to be "The One in A Million Original General".
 Garth remained humble and grateful all through his life.
